NO. 33.

Kentucky Educational Association.

In its write-up of the Kentucky Educational convention at Winchester, the Sun-Sentinel pays Prof. J. W. Ireland, of this place, a handsome compliment and gives the salient points of one of the talks he made, as follows:

"The discussion of the 'Tenure of the Teacher's Position,' is in plain vernacular holding your job. Pedagogics have reached such a status that most good places are held by political chicanery or pull. I advocate a three or four years' tenure in this position as well as in positions of other callings. The alloy 'pull' has come to be a necessary pedagogical asset. A railroad man is chosen for an indefinite time, and why not make the trainer of minds as secure as the minder of trains? A business man keeps his store for a long period, that he may become thoroughly conversant with the different departments and avenues of trade. The mind is a store-house and the teacher should know the different departments that he may help the student to store knowledge. I maintain then that the teacher should be chosen for a term of years to stop this eternal annual pulling for positions or jobs. You may say 'if the teacher does his full duty the position is forthcoming.' Not always is this the case, for just as in politics, a most efficient man is shelved for one unskilled, because some one has imagined he was unjustly treated. Relieve the weary pedagogue of his solicitude for next year and he will cease to revolve in his mind: 'How can I make my calling an election sure?' and can feel a surety in making some advance steps, even if they do not mature in one year. The judges of the Supreme Court are chosen for life. The reasons are known to all. Why not increase the tenure of the teacher for the same reasons? We can hardly hope for a life tenure, but make it longer. Preachers are called from place to place, not for more money, but for longer opportunities and wider fields (?) The teacher is sometimes nothing more than a traveling mendicant, leaving his stores at the feet of august boards annually. Sometimes for just cause we must admit. We can not claim for ourselves such altruism as the last mentioned man, but instead of the Eternal King calling us to wider and more inviting Canaans, the money king, rarely however, calls the footsore pedagogue to a more lucrative position. Some schools, such as Owensboro, Paris, et al., have elected for three and four years. This is a forward movement that will sooner or later become the rule and not the exception."

Editor F. J. Campbell, of the Somerset Journal, who is one of the happiest mated men we ever knew, writes:

"The gospel of happiness is one that every woman should lay to heart. What it means to a man to come home to a bright, cheerful wife, no one but he who has had to fight the hard battles of life knows. If he is prosperous it is an added joy; but it is in misfortune that it shines like a star in the darkness, like the sun in heaven. A complaining, negligent wife can kill the least bit of hope and courage in a sorely troubled heart while a cheery one gives new courage to begin the fight over and over again. The old trite saying, also despised because so common place that 'goodness makes happiness,' is as eternally true as that day succeeds night, and that it is only the evil which creates misery."

Remarkable Rescue

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1. at Penny's drug store. Trial bottle free.

The question of whether the State may grant a saloon license in a district in which local option has been voted, where the city license extends over a longer period than the State license, is to be presented to the County Judge of Warren county, when application is made by a saloon for renewal of its State license. It is contended by the prohibition side that the State license may not be renewed and the saloon must close.

It is said that preparations will be made to entertain 50,000 people. Besides the baskets of eatables that will be carried by the members living near by, 600 hogs and an equal number of sheep will be slaughtered for the occasion. 15 barrels of pickles and 50,000 trays will also be furnished.

SIXTEEN SPLENDID ACTS.

Great Free Attractions Secured For Big Blue Grass Fair.

Through an arrangement with Frank P. Spellman, of Cleveland, Ohio, the Blue Grass Fair, will have the most remarkable program of free attractions ever offered in the South. These attractions will embrace practically all the interesting features of a modern circus, and the program will require about two hours for its completion. They will include Spellman's troupe of performing bears, the largest troupe of bears ever offered at any show. They will include the great Valentines, the most sensational trapeze and casting act which has been put before the public in a number of years, and a number of other attractions equally good. These attractions will be a daily feature of the Blue Grass Fair from August 12th to 17th inclusive.

YOUNG ARTHUR P. GORMAN, of Maryland, is playing a bold political game, says a Washington dispatch. The stakes include two United States senatorships and the control of the Democratic party in the State. His allies are the followers of his father. His resources consist of a large fortune, considerable ability and a stoical nature. In the inner circle of the party it is known that Mr. Gorman's ambition is to sit in the Senate, as his father did. The young man is opposed to anything Gov. Warfield wants, as he charges that the latter was treacherous to his father, the late Senator Gorman. The prospects are that the fight will be to a finish and hot and furious.

The charge having been made that Atlantic City was suffering from race suicide, the doctors took a census and report an outlook for 200 babies, while 100 arrived in the merry month of May. Local doctors lay the responsibility for the increase in families to the general seashore prosperity. The Republican platform is a potpourri of platitudes. It declares for the county unit law, but has no word for the enforcement of the Sunday law and demands certain reforms that the party would not give the people, if by any chance its ticket should be elected. There are 13 planks in the concern. That makes it unlucky, and we shall from time to time show that it is unworthy.—Frankfort Journal.

Miss Fetro, of Crab Orchard, favored the audience with two solos and was vociferously applauded. The music furnished by Miss Lula Bates and Messrs. Edgar Bates and Marrs Gibbons, of Danville, and Miss Tevis Carpenter, of this place, was one of the delightful features of the evening's program.

Refreshing lemonade was served to the guests in the spacious parlor, which was artistically decorated with Japanese lanterns and candles. The punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. W. H. Shanks. After a conversational in the open air the guests were called in doors and Nations were played until 10:30 o'clock, after which time the tables were spread with covers and an elaborate and delicious luncheon was served, which was enjoyed to the full extent by each one who was so fortunate as to be present. This occasion will long be remembered as one of the happiest of the series of meetings given by the Social Club of Stanford.

HAAG'S TRAINED ANIMAL SHOW AT STANFORD, JULY 10TH.—Haag's Mighty Trained Animal Shows, best and only big shows coming this year, will exhibit in Stanford Wednesday, July 10, presenting a clean, moral and up-to-date exhibition of trained horses, ponies, dogs and the world's greatest herd of performing elephants. In connection with the shows is carried a monster caravan of wild and rare beasts from all parts of the world, embracing a drove of Camels, Dromedaries, Zebras, Emus, Yaks and Sacred cattle. See their big "ad" in another issue of this paper.

WILLIAM B. O'BANNON DROWNED.—Sunday afternoon the sad intelligence was heralded over Stanford that little William, youngest son of Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, had been drowned in the pond on the Ballard place near town and the whole community was shocked beyond measure. About 1 o'clock some 15 or 18 young boys went out to the Ballard pond to go in bathing and had spent two or three hours in the water and had begun to dress and start to town when some one asked: "Where is William O'Bannon, there lay his clothes?" Some of the boys remarked: "I guess he is hiding from us." It finally dawned on his companions that he might have gotten out beyond his depth and gone down to a watery grave. His older brother, Lester, was in the party, and he, Tom Greer, Milton Powell and Chas. Downer hurriedly undressed and plunged into the water and near the lower end of the pond Tom Greer stumbled over his body and carried him ashore. Dr. O'Bannon, his father, was telephoned for and when he reached the scene a few minutes later he found the little fellow lifeless, but like all loving fathers, he thought there might be a spark of life left and it was pitiable indeed to see him work so heroically and tenderly to bring back to life his dutiful and manly little son. Dr. Cook also aided Dr. O'Bannon. William O'Bannon was one of the brightest boys in Stanford and his name was seldom missing from the honor roll of the Stanford Graded School which he delighted to attend. If he had lived till next August he would have been 11 years old, but he who does all things for the best called him to that eternal home to join mother forever more. To mourn his loss are left a loving, tender, devoted father, two sisters, Misses Myrtle and Roberta O'Bannon, and brother, Lester. His step-mother, who was Miss Lillie Warner, had taken the place of mother, and she had proven in every sense of the word the same loving and devoted mother who had gone before. Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of Dr. O'Bannon, Eld. Joseph Ballou conducted appropriate funeral services and then all that was mortal of this dear, good boy was laid to rest beside his mother in Buffalo Springs Cemetery. A large crowd attended the burial and it was indeed a sad occasion to behold. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family and may God comfort them in their sad hour of affliction.

Miss Myrtle O'Bannon, who was visiting in Missouri, was denied the sad privilege of seeing her brother before he was finally laid to rest. J. M. A.

THE grand jury, which has been taking a vacation for several days, will be in session to-day and to-morrow.

ANOTHER big crowd attended the rink Saturday night and skating was enjoyed until 10:30. An immense crowd is expected to-night.

WHILE working at Fariss' slaughter house Friday afternoon Wesley Johnson was struck in the face by a piece of machinery. His nose was broken and he was badly cut under one of his eyes.

CIRCUIT COURT.—There has nothing been done in circuit court since last Wednesday, the Sims murder case being in progress. The defense has about finished its testimony and the arguments will be made to-day and it will likely go to the jury by evening.

THE stockholders of the Stanford Laundry Co. are requested to meet at the court-house next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of selecting a board of directors and officers. The store-room of W. K. Warner & Co. is likely to be selected for the laundry site.

KILLED IN PULASKI.—While out fishing in Pulaski, Wallace, 16-year-old son of John Green Singleton, of the Waynesburg section, was killed by lightning Saturday afternoon and was buried in the Waynesburg Cemetery Sunday. Rev. R. R. Noel conducted the funeral services.

CIRCUIT COURT begun at Mt. Vernon yesterday with a big docket. A fairly good crowd was in town but business generally was quiet. In the afternoon John D. Jarvis, of Barbourville, and Joe F. Bosworth, of Middlesboro, candidates for the republican nomination for State Senator, spoke.

THE Crab Orchard fair catalogue, printed by the Danville News, is out. It is a very creditable job of printing and was gotten out on short notice—about 10 days. It is full of well set advertisements and liberal premiums and is a splendid advertisement of the exhibition, which will begin July 10 and continue three days.

Despite an increase in production, Alabama iron furnaces are selling beyond their production. May beat all previous months of this year in output and June will pass its record.

Willis Adams & Son, of Mt. Vernon, sold to Reid & Allen, of the West End, a car-load of sheep and lambs at $3.75.

Every Man His Own Doctor.
The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments.
Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand.
Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.
Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swelling, lame back
and rheumatic pains.
Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for Constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.
Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.
One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by all druggists.

Increased salaries for teachers were recommended by the Kentucky Educational Association in session at Winchester, after it was shown that the average salary now is less than that paid section hands on railroads. The association declared in favor of votes for women on school questions and adjustment to meet next year in Frankfort.

Remarks.—In offering the services of Dare All to the public, I take occasion to state, without assumption, that I have been a breeder and handler of fancy saddle horses for 25 years and experience has taught me to know and appreciate a high class one.
Dare All is the result of careful, painstaking breeding and comes as natural result of mating the very best mares with the foremost stallions the state has offered. Carrying about 25 per cent. of King William blood a greater per cent. than any stallion in service in the state, King William being regarded as pre-eminent for fancy saddle and harness horses. Dare All sired by the now coming famous Dignity Dare, in turn by Chester Dare, following is the list of sires, every one a great show horse, out of mares that were equally as famous as show mares, and his dam, Fannie Mc, the greatest show mare we ever owned, having refused $100 for her, we think entitles him to the careful consideration of all prospective buyers. We think him the grandest show horse. See him before booking your mares.

in Danville and surrounding community, we have secured the services of an expert watchmaker direct from a large New York manufactory and make positive guarantee that we can repair any kind ever made. If your watch is running a little out of order, probably it needs oiling. Many fine instruments are ruined by continual running without oil. A stitch in time saves nine. We also repair and clean any and all kinds of clocks, and guarantee them to run when we have finished our work. There is no use to send any kind of repairing away from home, as we have these experts in constant attendance at our store. We positively do the finest expert engraving in this
